

Employees of the Year

2022

Sonia Lopez

Sonia's compassion and dedication to assist every patient makes her shine. Since becoming a BCHC employee she has taken initiative in every task, displays professionalism, and always arrives to work with positive attitude. Her willingness to help co-workers and exhausting every resource to assist patients exhibits a great sense of compassion.

Regina M. Garcia

Regina outshines due to her leadership and going above and beyond in everything she does. She is resourceful, professional, and ready to assist others outside her department. Her responsibility and reliability is of great essence when guiding her team to success. What made her a great candidate for Employee of the Year was her hard work and years of experience in medical records.

Marissa Trevino

Marissa's ability to strive to become one of the best employees is due to her various skills and characteristics. The excellency of customer service and respectfulness she provides our patients, co-workers, and providers is what makes her a great role model to her colleagues. She handles any tough situation with professionalism and always provides quality results. Her determination, persistency, and hardworking efforts is how she became a skilled professional in her department.

Jose Amando Sigala

Jose's loyalty and dependability makes him stand out. His co-workers appreciate that he is a hard worker, dependable, always willing to help out, and patient when training new employees. He likes to complete his duties accurately and in a timely manner by organizing his day. His diligence as a Maintenance Attendant makes him an essential part of the team and an asset to BCHC.
