

Can We Trust Carlos Cascos?

SOUTH TEXAS NEWS
Carlos Cascos Quits
County Judge Position
One Week After Being Elected

Less than a week after being re-elected as our County Judge, Carlos Cascos accepted the nomination for Sec. of State.* What did he tell the voters who elected him? Did he get a better offer...?
*Texas Tribune - 11/11/2014

SOUTH TEXAS NEWS
Carlos Cascos Quits
Sec. of State Position After
Two Years of a Four-Year Term

After serving only 2 years, Carlos submitted his resignation with no announced plans but to return to his accounting business.
Austin American Statesman - 12/05/2016

SOUTH TEXAS NEWS
Carlos Cascos Announces He Will
Once Again Run for County Judge
After Quitting as Sec. of State

Less than a year after announcing he was quitting his position as Tx Sec. of State, Cascos said he was ready to serve in public office. The voters didn't believe him; he as defeated in the next election.
 PI/So. Padre Press - 12/22/2017

"I want to be your County Judge ... uh, I want to be Secretary of State ... uh, I really want to be County Judge, again ... uh, at least i think I do ... uh, maybe."
- Maybe this is what Carlos Cascos was thinking?

Your Word is Your Bond!

Making promises you do not intend to keep is one of the worst things you can do. If we cannot believe you or trust you, then what does that say about you as a person?

"Given his track record, can we TRUST anything Carlos Cascos says or does?"

"It's Our Future Nuestro Futuro"

Early Voting - Oct. 24th thru Nov. 4th
Election Day - Tuesday, Nov. 8th

Re-Elect County Judge

Eddie Treviño, Jr.

www.trevinoforcountyjudge.com
facebook.com/trevinoforcountyjudge

Pol. Adv. Paid for by the Candidate, Mrs. Evangelina Treviño, Campaign Treasurer