

Who am I voting for – and Why?

So, you're not sure where you stand in the coming election of the President of the United States on Nov. 5? That's your business. You'll have to live with your decision. But below are reasons worth considering.

That moment when someone says, "I can't believe you would vote for Trump." I simply reply, "I'm not voting for Trump!"

I'm voting for the First Amendment and Freedom of Speech.

I'm voting for the Second Amendment and my right to defend my life and my family.

I'm voting for the next Supreme Court Justice(s) to protect the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

I'm voting for the continued growth of my retirement 401K and the stock market.

I'm voting for the return of our troops from foreign countries and the end to America's involvement in foreign conflicts that do not affect our security.

I'm voting for the Electoral College and for the Republic in which we live.

I'm voting for the Police to be respected once again and to ensure Law and Order.

I'm voting for the continued appointment of Federal Judges who respect the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

I'm voting for our jobs to remain in America and not be outsourced all over again to China, Mexico and other foreign countries.

I'm voting for secure borders and legal immigration.

I'm voting for the Military and the Veterans who fought for this country to give the American people our Freedoms.

I'm voting for the unborn babies who have a right to live.

I'm voting for continued peace progress in the Middle East.

I'm voting to fight against human/child trafficking.

I'm voting for Freedom of Religion.

I'm voting for the right to speak my opinion and not be censored.

I'm not just voting for one person. I'm voting for the future of my country.

I'm voting for my children, my grandchildren and my great-grandchildren to ensure their freedoms and their future.
