

Please support the Senior Citizens Services Levy!

On the November 4th ballot for all voter's consideration

This one mill renewal levy will result in no new taxes for the citizens of Allen County. The levy has been supported by voters since 1989. Estimated cost for a home valued at $50,000 is $50 per year.
100% of funds remain in Allen County.

The agencies providing direct services and facilities for funds generated by the levy are:

Allen County Council on Aging, Inc. Established: 1976
Michael K. Hensley, Executive Director
700 N. Main Street, Lima 419-228-5135

Senior Citizens Services, Inc. Established: 1968
Carol Russell, Executive Director
3400 West Elm Street, Lima 419-991-8811

Delphos Senior Citizens, Inc. Established: 1975
Alice Curth, Executive Director
301 Suthoff Street, Delphos 419-692-1331

Senior Citizens Association, Inc. of Bluffton: Established: 1970
Tonya Meyer, Executive Director
132 N. Main Street, Bluffton 419-358-8971

The funds from the levy are vital for the support of Allen County Agencies. Serving our growing senior population and helping promote the independence of seniors by providing the following services:

- Over 27,000 trips for seniors each year
  - Adult day care service
  - Wellness and health programs
- Medicare Counseling, which has helped save seniors over $2,000,000 in premiums and prescription costs over five years.
  - Chores - hedge trimming, lawn mowing, minor home maintenance repairs, carpets & gutters cleaned.
    - Hot meals are provided
  - Food boxes and prescriptions are delivered
- Socialization, activities and a host of other services are provided

Thank you for helping us continue to provide the services that seniors need and deserve!
